

At the Jazz Band Ball

Shields and LaRocca

Gm F7

Back when a ni-ckel would buy one drink of re - spec-ta - ble rye, pi - an - o play-ers in the

6 Bb G7 C7 F7 Gm

honk - y tonks would have to work on the sly One tune was known to a few,

11 C7

some stead-y ha - bi - tu - es too. So the word of mouth spread a-round the South strict - ly en - tre-

16 F7 § G7 C7

- nous. You bet - ter dig that Jazz Band Ball 'cuz its the ball of them all,

21 F7 Bb [break] G7

four or five mu-si-cians in a small sal - loon in - ven-ting a rag time tune. They kind - a made up their own

26 C7 Eb Edim Bb G7

brand, with - out a note on the stand, and they called it D - I - X - I - E hy-phen

31 C7 F7 Bb Bb

L - A - N-D land. You bet - ter Land